

A. C. MUNSEY DIES AT MAINE HOME

Father of Frank A. Munsey, the Publisher, Passes Away.

Came of a Long Line of Best New England Stock.

LIVERMORE FALLS, Me., July 2.—Andrew Chauncey Munsey, father of Frank A. Munsey, the publisher, is dead at his home in Livermore Falls, Me., aged eighty-six years. For a time he had been in feeble health, but his astonishing vitality was such that he lived beyond the ordinary years of man. He was twice married, but outlived both his wives and five of his seven children. The survivors are Frank A. Munsey, already mentioned, and Mrs. John M. Hyde, of Livermore Falls.

Had Large Ability.

Mr. Munsey was possessed of more than ordinary ability, and under favorable circumstances would have been a man of mark. His ancestors lived in Cumberland or Westmoreland county in the north of England, about three centuries ago. His earliest known ancestor in this country was William Munsey, the pioneer, whose name is found in Kittery, Me., in 1638. In or about 1665, William Munsey moved to Dover, N. H., and three years later was drowned in the Piscataqua river. His descendants in the direct line, most of whom lived in New Hampshire, were as follows: John, David, Timothy, Andrew, and Andrew Chauncey.

Mother Was Betsy Sawyer.

The mother of Andrew Chauncey Munsey was Betsy Sawyer, a descendant in the sixth generation from Thomas T. pioneer, one of the first six settlers of Lancaster, Mass., the oldest town in Worcester county.

Mr. Munsey's first wife and mother of his children was Mary Jane Merritt Hopkins. She was a descendant not only of Stephen and Giles Hopkins, of the Mayflower passengers, but also of Elder Brewster, John Alden, Priscilla Mullins, and several others of that famous company.

Andrew Chauncey Munsey was born near Haverhill, N. H., June 13, 1831. In 1852 he moved to Springfield, Me., and in 1857 married his first wife, Miss Hopkins, at Litchfield, Me. He lived in Lincoln, Gardiner, Litchfield, Mercer, and Bowdoin. From the last-named town, August 12, 1862, he entered the Union army and served until June 25, 1865. He carried a gun at Antietam. For two years he was in the ambulance corps.

Escaped Smallpox.

During his service a smallpox epidemic broke out, and he took charge of the patients. He had never had the disease, yet he escaped the infection. He saw fighting right through from the Wilderness to Petersburg, but came out in safety.

He had a long and honorable life, and his last days were gladdened often by the visits of his surviving son, who, amid the pressure of a thousand cares, never forgot his venerable father, and stood by the latter's bedside as the spirit took its flight.

MORMONS WAIT WEEKS

FOR ROBIN'S BROOD

AFTON, Wyo., July 2.—In order that a robin might hatch her eggs undisturbed, work on the new Mormon tabernacle here was suspended for seven days. The robin built a nest in a pile of planks intended for use in the construction of the building. It was decided that if the nest were moved before the eggs hatched the mother bird would abandon it, and rather than destroy the prospective family, the men erecting the tabernacle laid off until the young robins made their appearance.

MEXICAN JUNTA LEADER

ARRESTED AND JAILED

DOUGLAS, Ariz., July 2.—Manuel Satabia, one of the leading spirits in the former St. Louis junta, who was known here as San Morel, has been arrested and lodged in jail at the instance, it is said, of the Mexican government. Late at night an automobile occupied by two Americans was driven to the jail. The prisoner was delivered to them, and was forcibly placed in the vehicle.

CHICAGO STREET CAR MEN

GRANTED WAGE INCREASE

CHICAGO, July 2.—Nearly seven thousand men employed on the street car lines and elevated roads of the city have received word of an advance in wages from 7 to 10 per cent. The negotiations just terminated were begun a month ago, and the agreement for the coming year signed last night.

FORGER AT SIXTEEN.

GIRL COMMITS SUICIDE

AURORA, Mo., July 2.—Miss Pearl Silence, of Douglas county, sixteen years old, committed suicide near Aurora by hanging herself, after an attempt to cash a forged check. Dressed in boy's clothes, she appeared at the Citizens' Bank, at Ava, and presented a check for $10 purporting to have been signed by Mr. Johnson. The cashier pronounced the check a forgery.

STILLMAN RETURNING

AS STORM BLOWS OVER

NEW YORK, July 2.—Wall Street heard today that James Stillman, president of the National City Bank, who is said to have retired from that institution and be succeeded by Frank Vanderlip, is on the ocean, bound for New York. It was said he was on the Kaiser Wilhelm III, due today.

Mr. Stillman has been in Paris for the last six months, where he went shortly before the beginning of the investigation of the Harriman properties, with which he is identified.

Gladys Vanderbilt To Be Wealthiest Of American Girls

MISS GLADYS VANDERBILT,
Who Will Be Richest Eligible American Woman.

WILL INHERIT BIG FORTUNE NEXT MONTH

Great Fetes Planned For Her Coming of Age.

NEW YORK, July 2.—It has been made known that the extensive festivities now being arranged at the Breakers, the Newport home of Mrs. Alice G. Vanderbilt, next month, will be in conjunction with the distribution of one of America's greatest fortunes.

On the date of the fete Miss Gladys Moore Vanderbilt attains her legal age, and under her father's will comes into absolute possession of the millions left in trust for her.

Miss Vanderbilt is the youngest of the five direct heirs to the vast fortune accumulated by the third head of the house of Vanderbilt.

Growth of Fortune.

The Cornelius Vanderbilt fortune was estimated in value seven years ago, when the will was filed, variously at from $30,000,000 to $120,000,000. Experts who have kept track of the fluctuations in securities, such as make up the bulk of the wealth, say that as a result of the real estate holdings the estate is worth at least 10 per cent more than it represented at the time of Mr. Vanderbilt's death.

Richest Eligible Girl.

Miss Gladys Vanderbilt will be in her own right the richest eligible young woman in America. The direct inheritance of $75,000,000 received under the will, with accrued income, has been so skillfully manipulated by the executors that it is said to represent now approximately $100,000,000. Added to this is a one-fourth interest in the estate of $10,000,000, provided for her mother, Mrs. Alice G. Vanderbilt, during her natural life. This will consequently bring the fortune of Miss Vanderbilt to $112,500,000.

A large force of clerks and accountants have been busy for many weeks at the offices of the Vanderbilt estate. Forty-second street and Madison avenue, making preparations for the distribution of the stupendous fortune.

LIGHTHOUSE HEROINE'S GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

NEWPORT, July 2.—Miss Ida Lewis, the Grace Darling of America, who has lived for fifty years at Lime Rock Lighthouse, and has for twenty-eight years been keeper of the beacon, celebrated today her golden anniversary as a resident of the historic spot out on the waters. Miss Lewis was fifty-eight years old in March last, but she is still alert in body and mind. Practically all of Newport took part in the celebration of today, for the people here are proud of the brave woman who has to her credit the saving of eighteen lives from the sea.

TRY DISTILLER IN HOSPITAL COT

Illegal Rectifying, Charge of Internal Revenue Officials.

Commissioner Capers and Solicitor Hayes, of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, are today at the Georgetown Hospital for the purpose of listening to arguments by former Commissioner Yerkes, who is attorney for a distiller of Louisville, Ky., in a case involving the seizure of about 350 barrels of whiskey.

This is believed to be the first time that Government officials have been called upon to leave the department and visit a hospital for the purpose of giving consideration to departmental litigation. It is alleged that the distiller, without having license as a rectifier or the authority to do so, placed certain coloring matter into the whiskey, which was subsequently seized by revenue agents.

A conviction, it is stated, would subject the whiskey to forfeiture and lay the owner liable to a heavy fine. Mr. Yerkes is confined to the hospital, following a severe accident sustained in Cincinnati a few weeks since.

VIRGINIA RAILROADS IGNORING RATE LAW

NORFOLK, Va., July 2.—None of the railroad ticket offices in Norfolk are selling 2-cent mileage passenger tickets in compliance with the order of the State corporation commission enforcing the 2-cent passenger rate on and after July 1. The Norfolk and Western, Atlantic Coast Line, Southern, and Chesapeake and Ohio railways began this morning, however, selling tickets with a receipt rebate thereon. The purchasers of tickets will hold these rebate receipts and in the event the appeal made by the railroads from the ruling of the Virginia corporation commission falls the holders will, upon presentation, receive refunds for the face value of their receipts. Norfolk ticket agents for other roads are selling at the old rates today without the giving of rebate receipts.

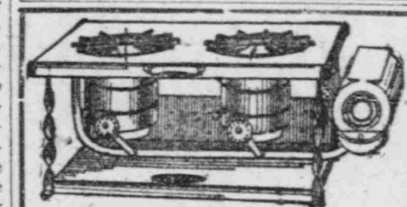

GIRL'S BODY FOUND; TWO SUSPECTS HELD

MARSHFIELD, Wis., July 2.—The body of Jennie Richter, a farmer's daughter, has been found near her home, fifteen miles north of here. She had been attacked and murdered. Search for her was begun Sunday night, when she failed to return from church. Two suspects, John McKay and Joe Bartlett, have been arrested. The girl's neighbors talk of lynching the men, and the sheriff has doubled the guard at the jail.

WEST SHORE LIMITED STOPS FOR MRS. AYRES

NEW YORK, July 2.—Before the patriotic charm of Mrs. Elizabeth Fairfax Ayres, not only do West Point commandants and tactical instructors quail, but the proud West Shore railroad gladly disarranges the schedule of its haughtiest flyer.

Train No. 3, the Chicago and St. Louis limited, pulled up at the tiny Highland Falls station, in order that the fair Virginian need not throw West Point behind her by passing through the military reservation, from which a recent order of the War Department barred her.
